

The following agencies are available to discuss providing initial Person Centered Planning services to future Self Determination Participants. Availability of funding for these services is still pending. These agencies/staff have received training in or have experience with Person Centered Planning. The San Diego Regional Center (SDRC) does not endorse any of the below agencies, and they have been listed in alphabetical order. SDRC does not have information about their process, output, or rates. Please contact them to discuss individual needs. We will continue to add other resources as we become aware of them.
