

San Diego Regional Center for Persons with Developmental Disabilities
Message from the Executive Director
May 5, 2020

All offices of the San Diego Regional Center (SDRC) remain closed to the public. SDRC's employees are still working remotely and are available to their clients and families. The business hours of the SDRC are as before the COVID-19 emergency, 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Please continue to access your service coordinator by calling their telephone number or by email. If you do not know your service coordinator's contact information please call our main number, (858) 576-2996, or send an email message to input@sdrc.org. You can expect a return call or message within 24 business hours.

Governor Newsom has indicated that California will be moving into Stage 2 as early as Friday, May 8, 2020, which allows for gradual reopening of lower-risk workplaces with adaptations including bookstores, clothing stores, florists and sporting goods stores. The Governor also announces new framework to allow counties to move more quickly through Stage 2 if they attest that they meet the state's readiness criteria.

The Board of Directors and I send our sincere appreciation to our clients, families, service providers, and staff in Imperial and San Diego counties, for your flexibility, courage, and patience during this unprecedented COVID-19 pandemic emergency.
